

Fact: Over N5 billion invested in empowering Nigerian women (2007-2017)

Energy lives here™

Truth: Helping over 10,000 women fulfil their economic potential

Through our women empowerment initiatives (Global Women In Management - GWIM and WEConnect), ExxonMobil is helping Nigerian women fulfil their economic potentials and drive economic and social change in their communities.

With over N5 billion invested so far, we are fully focused on developing women entrepreneurs to help accelerate Nigeria's economic growth.

Let's work together to keep this door of opportunity open!
